Dear Mr. Morgan:

Thank you for your recent letter to Mr. Casey. We here at CIA are always happy to hear from the news media and to be of assistance to you when possible.

Regarding your request for a history on the Agency, there have been two histories done recently to which you may be referring. CIA, however, is unable to furnish you copies of them. I would suggest that you instead request these publications from the publishers as listed below:

History of CIA by Anne Karalekas
Aegean Park Press
Laguna Hills, CA

Donovan and the CIA: a History of the Establishment of the CIA
by Thomas F. Troy
Aletheia Books
Frederick, MD

The Government Printing Office also has afforded members of the Federal Deposit Library Program the opportunity to acquire the book Donovan and the CIA. You may well be able to acquire a copy from a participating library. Further information on this may be obtained by contacting the Library Division of the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402 (telephone 202-557-9013).

Thank you again for writing us.

Mr. William Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey,

I hope you may recall that I met you both in connection with our mutual interest in the Center for the Study of the Presidency when I attended the reception for you after your appointment at the Metropolitan Club and with Capital Cities Communications, Inc., at stockholder meetings.

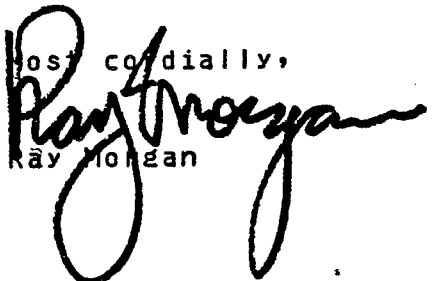

I am writing you in connection with a reference to a history of the agency published by it to which a reference was made recently in the Woodrow Wilson Quarterly. There was no reference as to how copies could be obtained but I am quite interested in having one if it is available.

I wonder if it would be possible for me to obtain a copy from you. I would be pleased to send a check for whatever amount is involved for it.

Incidentally, I am a personal friend of Bob and Elizabeth Dole and they were kind enough to submit a resume on me early on to the White House in connection with some possible appointment in the new administration.

Subsequently, I was in touch with James Baker at the White House and expressed some interest in the fact that my 35 years of news coverage might be of some value in some kind of analytical capacity with your agency. Of course, nothing ever came of it.

Thank you in advance for whatever assistance you can give me in obtaining one of the agency histories if they are available and I look forward to seeing you again in the future.

Very cordially,

Ray Morgan
